

Librarians As Teachers 2013: Engaging Learners in the Digital Age

9.30	Registration / coffee
10.00	Welcome: Anthony Brewerton, Head of Academic Services, Warwick University Library
10.15	Keynote 1: The ways in which people seek, use, consume and trust information in today's digital world Professor David Nicholas, Director of CIBER Research
11.10	Case study: Cinemeducation: You don't just learn from reading John Loy, Learning Resources Manager, Avon and Wiltshire Mental Health Partnership NHS Trust & Hélène Gorrington, Library Services Manager, Birmingham & Solihull Mental Health Foundation Trust
11.40	Break
12.00	Case study: The 'Student as Researcher' at Warwick University Helen Curtis, Academic Support Manager (Teaching & Learning) & Cate Mackay, 'Student as Researcher' Officer, Warwick University Library
12.30	Case study: Example teaching session: Evaluating information on websites Barbara Band, Head of Library & Resources, The Emmbrook School, Wokingham, Berks and CILIP Vice President
13.00	Lunch
13.45	Sponsor: Capita
13.55	Keynote 2: Rethinking information literacy: Collaboration, coordination and consolidation Jane Secker, Copyright and Digital Literacy Advisor, LSE & Emma Coonan, Research Skills and Development Librarian, Cambridge University
14.40	SOCK! BAM! POW! Top 10 Tools for evaluation with IMPACT! Virginia Power, Resources and eLearning Manager, Bridgwater College
15.25	Break
15.50	Creating a 21st century learning space Matt Gallon, Deputy Manager/e-learning Advisor, Jisc RSC West Midlands
16.20	Closing announcements